. Description of the main features of the credit p	product
Type of credit	Credit account, revolving	credit
Maximum amount of credit This means the ceiling, or the total sums made available under the credit agreement.	Up to 30,000 kr, unless specifically agreed otherwise. Your total credit limit is stated on your invoic and in the customer portal.
Conditions governing the drawdown This means how and when you will obtain the money.	The creditor decides whether to grant you credit in connection with your registration (first application for credit) and thereafter upon new applications. When purchasing specific products offered by selected partners of the creditor, you can either pay the purchase amount up front at the time of purchase or use the credit amount you have been granted as the means of payment. The granted credit amount is thus obtained by a purchase for the corresponding amount being approved and completed successfully.
The duration of the credit agreement	The credit account agreement expires four months after you have paid the outstanding amount in full unless you close the account before then.
Instalments and the order in which instalments will be allocated. The total amount you will have to pay	You will be invoiced on a monthly basis, commencing as of the first drawdown of the credit and up until used credit is fully repaid, all according to the payment plan agreed. By each due date, you shall at least pay the minimum amount shown in your invoice. You can choose to deviate from the payment plan by paying the entire outstanding amount or an amount that exceeds the minimum amount, but never lower than the minimum amount. When payments are made, older debts will be settled first. The creditor has the right to deduct all past due fees, expenses and interest related to the credit before deduction of the capital debt. The total amount to be paid depends on the granted and used line of credit, how you choose to se

. Costs of credit
Borrowing rate (credit interest)	At the time the credit account agreement is entered into the nominal interest (credit rate) is 0%. The applicable interest rate, if applied, consist of the Swedish National Bank's (Riksbanken) prevailing reference rate and a margin that is published at teliafinance.com ("Interest"). If the quote reference rate is negative the reference rate shall be 0%. The Interest will be reviewed quarterly or the first banking day of January, April, July and October and will remain unchanged between these adjustment dates. If the reference rate changes, the Interest will change correspondingly. The changes in Interest will apply from the start of the next payment period after the adjustment dates i January, April, July and October respectively. Information regarding changes in Interest will be provided in the next invoice sent after the adjustment.
Annual Percentage Rate of Charge (APR) This is the total cost expressed as an annual percentage of the total amount of credit. The APR is there to help you compare different offers.	Total cost of credit (APR) with a representative example from 2025-02-25: The APR for using a credit amount of 10,000 kr at 0% credit interest (borrowing rate) with a repayment period of 24 months, with 24 instalments of 416.67 kr each is 0%. The total amount to repay for a credit of 10,000 kr is 10,000 kr. Paying in parts with Telia Finance is thus totally free of interest and fees. Paper invoice costs 49 kr/month.
Is it compulsory, in order to obtain the credit or to obtain it on the terms and conditions marketed, to take: - an insurance policy, or - another ancillary service?	No. No.

a) Concerning the credit agreement
Right of withdrawal You have the right to withdraw from the credit agreement within a period of 14 calendar days.	Yes. You have the right to withdraw from the credit account agreement within a period of 14 calendar days. The withdrawal period starts either on the day the credit account agreement is entered into or on the day you receive a written or electronic copy of the credit account agreement, whichever event occurs later. If you wish to use your right of withdrawal, you shall send a clear notification of your decision to cancel the credit account agreement (containing your name, personal identity number and credit account number) to Telia Finance. You may use the withdrawal form in the customer portal but can also choose to use other methods of withdrawal. You are recommended to always document the withdrawal notice as evidence of your cancellation. If you wish to withdraw, you shall as soon as possible and at the latest within 30 days from dispatch of your withdrawal notice pay the outstanding credit amount including any applicable registration fee and Interest for the actual credit period (i.e. for the period until the outstanding amount has been repaid to the creditor). If you do not pay the outstanding amount including applicable interest (if any) within the set time limit, the withdrawal is deemed annulled and the credit account agreement shall remain valid.
Early repayment	You have the right to repay the credit early at any time, in full or partially, free of charge.
Consultation of a database The creditor must inform you immediately and without charge of the result of a consultation of a database if a credit application is rejected on the basis of such a consultation. This does not apply if the provision of such information is prohibited by European Community law or is contrary to objectives of public policy or public security.	The creditor uses your personal credit information for assessing, granting and monitoring of the credit. The credit information is acquired from the credit information register of UC AB and Creditsafe I Sverige AB.
Right to a draft credit agreement You have the right, upon request, to obtain a copy of the draft credit agreement free of charge. This provision does not apply if the creditor is at the time of the request unwilling to proceed to the conclusion of the credit agreement with you.	If you have not received a draft credit account agreement, you may receive such free of charge by contacting Telia Finance.
